

Identify and comment upon the conventions and features in different text types

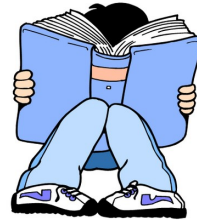

Recognise some different forms of poetry (for example, free verse, narrative etc)

Predict what might happen based on what is implied in the text.

When reading aloud, show that I understand the text through my intonation, tone and volume.

Explain the meaning of words in the context of the text

Year 4 Reader

Infer characters' feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions

Discuss why certain words and phrases capture the reader's interest

Justify my opinions and inferences with evidence from the text

Locate information quickly using skimming and scanning techniques

Retrieve and record information from non-fiction

Identify language features in texts and recognise the different styles of language used for different purposes

Identify how texts are presented in different ways and how the presentation of a text contributes to meaning.

Identify how the structure of texts (eg titles, sub-headings, labels, diagrams and charts) contributes to meaning.

Identify the main ideas in each section of a text, describing them in a few words.