Pg. 7: Interview with
Mrs. Balshaw and

Goodbye!

2017-2018 EUXTON EXPRESS TEAM

We asked all the Year 5 children who wanted to be in our next Newspaper Team to write a newspaper article and we have picked a team of seven Year 5s. We feel they will do their best (just like we have done) 😊. We have been asking them to write articles so we can see what roles would be good for them.

Brilliant Baking Recipes

By Eadie – Recipe Reporter

Simple Vanilla Cup Cakes

- Cross Country: Year 3, 4, 5 and 6 Girls came 1st overall.

Wonderful Word Winner

Well done to Joe Shannon from Year 6, who came 1st with his entry titled 'My Best Day Out':

When I went to BPB (Blackpool Pleasure Beach) it was probably one of the best days of my life. Me and my dad went on lots of different rides, my favorite was the Big One, the Dipper and Infusion. We bought this pass thingamabob so we could book rides so we didn't have to wait. When we went to Nickelodeon Land my dad bought us an ice cream. Problem was that we were just about to go on a ride and I hadn't finished the ice cream. We got on and ride started. I remember it like yesterday: the ice cream came out of the cone, it was dripping so it looked like a spiky ball, swerving in the air and going right towards me. Because of the wind, the spiky ball swerved and hit my dad in the face! All I can say is that a new campaign should be started: Spiky-Away!

Stop cruelty to Dads!

WELL DONE TO
TILLY STEELE-
MOON FROM YEAR
2 WHO CAME 2ND
AND LUCY
GRAHAM FROM RECEPTION WHO CAME 3RD.

Eadie's Corner

Hi, this is Eadie and I will be talking to you about new things that have recently come out like Films, Books and Music.

I have recently seen a film called A Dog's Purpose with my fellow Newsagent: Molly Yarker. I would definitely recommend it to all of you. Not to spoil too much of the film, but it is about a dog called Bailey. It is a film about happiness and sadness, but overall an excellent family film to watch on a rainy day, or when you have nothing to do.

Now, onto Music, I am sure all of you have heard Ed Sheeran's new album: Divide, well, a song we all love (Galway Girl) is one of the top 10 in the UK. Also a new music video of the song that I am sure all of you have seen but go and check the song and the video out I am sure you will all love it. Go and enjoy, dance around and have fun. Also, check out this amazing list of songs:

-  Shape Of You (Ed Sheeran)
-  Play That Song (Train)
-  Touch (Little Mix)
-  Power (Little Mix)
-  Symphony (Clean Bandit)

Do you have any worries? Well, we have decided to open a new section: Euxton Explains. If you want to know answers to MOST things cut out this think bubble below! Don't worry, you don't have to share your name with us or anyone. Write below and we will publish (if you want to) your answer in our newspaper!

Please hand this in to Niamh Lawton or Joseph Gallacher

Awesome Artist Staff Winner Interview

Why did you choose to draw the Joker?

Mrs. Balshaw: He wasn't my first choice; I was going to draw Yoda but my son didn't like the drawing! That is why I did the Joker.

How did you draw him so good?

Mrs. Balshaw: I did art in school. I think it runs in the family because my grandfather was an artist!

Did you think you would win the staff competition?

Mrs. Balshaw: At the time I didn't think I was going to win because I thought Mr. Price and Mrs. Fishwick were going to enter.

Thank you, Mrs. Balshaw, for letting us interview you!

By Niamh Lawton, Joseph Gallacher and Elizabeth Clewlow.

Goodbye

We hope you enjoyed reading this as much as we enjoyed writing it. We will be sad to leave the Newspaper Team, but we know that we can trust the next Newspaper Team (Joseph Gallacher, Niamh Lawton, Elizabeth Clewlow, Eleanor Ellison and Alex Todd) to do an amazing job. Thank you for entering all our competitions!

Signed: The Newspaper Team! 😊
